IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

IN RE: PETITION FOR DISCIPLINARY REVOCATION OF DANIEL ROBERT BRINLEY,	Supreme Court Case No.:
Petitioner. /	The Florida Bar File No.: 2019-50,354(15F-FDR)

AMENDED PETITION FOR DISCIPLINARY REVOCATION WITH LEAVE TO APPLY FOR READMISSION

The Petitioner, DANIEL ROBERT BRINLEY, by and through his undersigned attorneys, pursuant to Rule 3-7.12 of the R. Regulating Fla. Bar, files this Petition For Disciplinary Revocation With Leave to Apply For Readmission, and as grounds therefore states as follows:

1. Petitioner knowingly and voluntarily files this petition with full knowledge of its effect.

2. The Petitioner, DANIEL ROBERT BRINLEY, 50 years of age, was admitted to the practice of law in this state on September 24, 1992 and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Florida and the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar.

3. The Petitioner's disciplinary record includes a four-month suspension in March of 1999 The Florida Bar v. Brinley, 729 So. 2d 918 (Table; Fla 1999) and a three-year suspension imposed in April of 1999 The Florida Bar v. Brinley, 731 So. 2d 650 (Table; Fla. 1999). He was reinstated to practice law on September 26, 2007, The Florida Bar v. Brinley, 967 So. 2d 198 (Table; Fla. 2007) and has not been disciplined since.

4. There are two matters pending before a referee that allege client neglect, a lack of communication, competency and misrepresentations to a client, and conduct in connection with the practice of law that is prejudicial to the administration of justice. See SC18-1897 and SC18-1898.

5. Additional matters are under investigation by The Florida Bar at staff level and/or pending before a grievance committee and they include The Florida Bar ("TFB") File Nos. 2019-50,052(15F) and 2019-50,342(15F) and they contain allegations of client neglect and misrepresentation. TFB File No. 2019-50,342(15F) also includes an allegation of misappropriation.

6. While the Petitioner does not believe he engaged in all of the unethical conduct referenced in the various pending matters, he does acknowledge that the allegations, if proven, would form the predicate for disciplinary action by this Court.

7. Other than those disclosed above, there are no other past or known pending disciplinary actions or criminal proceedings against the Petitioner.

8. This revocation will not adversely affect the public interest, the purity of the courts, nor hinder the administration of justice; nor the confidence of the public in the legal profession.

9. The Petitioner agrees to reimburse the Clients' Security Fund of The Florida Bar for any and all payments imposed as a result of his defalcations.

10. The Petitioner agrees to reimburse The Florida Bar for the reasonable costs incurred in his disciplinary cases:

Administrative Fee in SC18-1897:	$1,250.00
Administrative Fee in SC18-1898:	$1,250.00
Staff Investigator Costs	$58.80
Court Reporter Costs	$127.06
TOTAL COSTS	$2,685.86

11. The Petitioner agrees to permit the bar to audit any and all trust accounts and any other accounts over which he has signatory authority as either an attorney-at-law, fiduciary, or trustee.

12. The Petitioner will provide The Florida Bar with a sworn financial affidavit within thirty (30) days of tendering this Petition for Disciplinary Revocation.

13. The Petitioner shall notify the bar of any change of address during a two-year period to be computed from the date of the entry of this court's order accepting this petition for disciplinary revocation. Further, the petitioner shall keep the bar advised as to the physical address of petitioner's home and/or business in the event the petitioner should utilize a post office box or other type of mail drop service.

14. The Petitioner agrees to immediately cease transacting any trust funds and not to accept any new clients. The petitioner further agrees to immediately begin winding down his practice, to give notice to all affected clients, and to cease ALL representations within thirty (30) days of tendering this Petition for Disciplinary Revocation.

15. The Petitioner understands that the granting of this petition by the Supreme Court of Florida shall serve to dismiss all pending disciplinary cases.

16. The Petitioner respectfully requests that the revocation be granted with leave for him to apply for readmission in five years. Petitioner understands that should this petition be granted, his admission to The Florida Bar shall be revoked for a minimum of five (5) years. No Application for readmission may be tendered until the later of five (5) years after the Court's order granting the petition, or such other period of time in excess of five (5) years as may be contained in said order. Any application for readmission shall proceed under the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admission to the Bar.

17. Petitioner has been represented by and received the advice of counsel in this matter.

WHEREFORE, The Petitioner, DANIEL ROBERT BRINLEY, respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order granting this request for the disciplinary revocation of his admission to The Florida Bar on the grounds and for the reasons hereinabove set forth and for the entry of any other and further orders as this Court may deem proper under the circumstances.
