

Supreme Court of Florida

TUESDAY, MARCH 30, 2021

CASE NO.: SC21-468
Lower Tribunal No(s).:
2020-30,767 (5A) (CFC)

THE FLORIDA BAR

vs. DAMIEN ARANGUREN

Complainant(s)

Respondent(s)

The Florida Bar's Motion to Determine Confidentiality of Appellate Court Records, filed on March 30, 2021, is hereby granted. Unless otherwise ordered by this Court, Respondent's fingerprints, contained in Exhibits A and B to the Notice of Determination or Judgment of Guilt, shall remain redacted and may be viewed only by the below listed individuals. As required by Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(g)(3) and 2.420(e)(3)(A)-(H), the Court finds:

- (A) The instant case is a lawyer discipline proceeding brought by The Florida Bar.
- (B) Respondent's fingerprints are confidential under Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(c)(7) and section 119.071(5)(g)(2), Florida Statutes.
- (C) The identity of the parties in this case is not confidential.
- (D) The docket of this case is not confidential.
- (E) The following information is confidential: Respondent's fingerprints, contained in Exhibits A and B to the Notice of Determination or Judgment of Guilt.

CASE NO.: SC21-468

Page Two

- (F) The Complainant, the Respondent, the attorneys of record in this case or their agents, and necessary court personnel are permitted to view the redacted items.
- (G) The degree, duration, and manner of confidentiality ordered are no broader than necessary to protect the interests set forth in Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(c); and no less restrictive measures are available to protect the interests set forth in rule 2.420(c).
- (H) The Clerk of this Court is directed to publish this order in accordance with Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.420(g)(4).
